From International Terminal of New Chitose Airport to Sapporo

There are 3 ways to go to JR Sapporo Station from New Chitose Airport:

- 1) By Train
- 2) By Bus
- 3) By Car (taxi)

Free Wi-Fi is available in the airport

Currency Exchange Service is on the same floor.

1) Taking a Train to JR Sapporo Station

When you exit the baggage claim, you will see the JR (Japan Railway Company) guide sign. Follow the multi-lingual signs.

Walk straight about 250 meters, then you will reach to the Domestic Terminal. Take the escalator to B1 to buy your ticket and board the train.

Just follow the multi-lingual signs.

You can check the time schedule of the Rapid Airport “快速 エアポート” (kaisoku-ea-pohto) train bound for Sapporo on electronic bulletin boards.

Tickets for Sapporo Station cost ¥1,150. You can buy them at the automatic vending machines.

The machines take ¥1000, ¥5000, and ¥10000 bills and give you change automatically. Just put in your money and press the button on the screen. Take your change and the ticket.

Insert your ticket

Put your ticket in a slot on the automatic ticket gate, and your ticket will come out on the other end of the gate. Take the ticket and keep it. You will need it when you exit at Sapporo Station. Go down on the escalator, and you will reach to the platform.

There are non-reserved seats (自由席) and reserved seats (指定席) called “U-Seat.” U-Seat requires seat reservations(+¥840).

- The Rapid Airport train takes about 37 minutes to Sapporo Sta.
- When you arrive at Sapporo Sta., insert your ticket in the ticket gate to exit.
- After you exit, you can find taxis at the North Exit.

○ Sapporo Sta.

✗ Shin Sapporo Sta.

JR Sapporo Station is NOT JR SHIN-Sapporo Station which is one station before Sapporo Sta. from the airport. Stay on the train until just about everyone get off; it will be Sapporo Station.

2) Taking a Bus to JR Sapporo Station

You will find the guide sign for the Route Bus. Follow the multi-lingual signs.

There is a Bus information and ticket desk. You can buy tickets for the bus here.

Please ask if you need help.

After confirming the time and buying the ticket, find the bus stop No.65.
