

HOKKAIDO UNIVERSITY'S

Modern Japanese Studies Program

Summer Lecture Series 2015

■ Lecture 1

○ July 10th, 4:30-6pm, OIA Lecture Room L2, 1F

Prof. Nathaniel Smith (The University of Arizona)

“Rightist Relativity: How Post-3.11 Civil Society, the Rise of Xenophobic Activism, and Abe’s Agenda have differentiated the Right”

© Nathaniel Smith

■ Lecture 2

○ July 24th, 4:30-6pm, OIA 316

Prof. John Traphagan (The University of Texas at Austin)

“Entrepreneurs and Return Migration in Rural Japan”

■ Lecture 3

○ August 7th, 4:30-6pm, OIA Lecture Room L2, 1F

Prof. Michele Mason (The University of Maryland)

“Comingling Histories: Ikezawa Natsuki's Novel Representations of Colonial Hokkaido”

No registration required:

For more information, please contact mjsp@oia.hokudai.ac.jp