Application Guidelines

Self-Supported International Students Applying to the Modern Japanese Studies Program

Due to the impact of the novel corona virus, there is a possibility that the student selection will be done in an alternative way to that written in this Application Guidelines, and there is a possibility it may be postponed or cancelled. In addition, application procedures and application documents are subject to change. Information will be updated on our website, <https://www.oia.hokudai.ac.jp/mjsp/for-prospective-students/how-to-apply/>, as necessary. Furthermore, please prepare and collect application documents such as the Certificate of (Expected) Graduation and transcripts, etc. as early as possible in case it becomes hard to do so because of the pandemic or school lockdowns.

HOKKAIDO UNIVERSITY

Modern Japanese Studies Program

Hokkaido University

Admission Policy

Hokkaido University is one of the leading research-intensive universities in Japan with departments ranging from the sciences to the humanities. It was established in 1876 as the Sapporo Agricultural College. It is one of Japan's prestigious seven "former Imperial Universities" and today is a leading national university. During its long history, Hokkaido University has cultivated academic autonomy and freedom based on four basic philosophies relating to education and research: Frontier Spirit, Global Perspectives, All-round Education, and Practical Learning.

Guided by these philosophies, the university's mission is to be a place where knowledge is created, disseminated, and applied in the new century, thereby contributing to the development of human welfare, science, culture, and society through education and research.

The university strives to offer undergraduate education that teaches students to participate in society as global citizens, to acquire the academic and communication skills that will give them a solid foundation in their professional lives, and to study their fields of expertise from a broad academic perspective. The university aims to make its graduates capable of exercising sound judgment and leadership as exemplary citizens possessing high-quality and internationally recognized academic credentials. In addition, the university nurtures students so that they may take leading roles as professionals in their fields and actively promote academic creativity.

Hokkaido University has built upon this tradition and its history since it was founded and recruits talented students from throughout Japan and the rest of the world. We use an advanced selection system to seek out students who have the academic ability needed to pursue an undergraduate education, such as basic knowledge, basic skills, mathematical ability, linguistic ability, depth of understanding, and comprehension skills. We strive to recruit students who have the qualities needed to pursue studies at the university level and beyond, such as problem-solving skills, creativity, a sense of ethics, flexible thinking, communication ability, the ability to think theoretically, leadership skills, integrity, and the desire to learn.

Modern Japanese Studies Program Admission Policy

Students We Are Seeking:

(1) Knowledge and Comprehension

In the Modern Japanese Studies Program, students not only study the language, society, and culture of Japan from diverse perspectives but also gain expert knowledge in humanities and social sciences. We seek to identify high proficiency students with general knowledge of literature, history, thought, culture, society, and institutions of any country or region who are capable of understanding the perspectives and ways of thinking that constitute that knowledge.

(2) Thinking Skills, Analytical Skills, and Creativity

Demonstrate skills gained from experiences in logical thinking and analysis from diverse perspectives. Shows willingness to objectively look at different cultures or societies with an open mind and respond to new ideas and experiences with creativity.

(3) Initiative for collaborative learning in a diverse environment

After completing the program, students are expected to play an active role as a bridge between Japan and the rest of the world. Therefore, communication skills, a strong interest in the Japanese language and the society of modern Japan, and a desire for active involvement in study and research with a clear objective are key traits we seek. Being able to cooperate with others with diverse backgrounds and learn collaboratively in a multicultural and multilingual environment with openness and impartiality without biases and discriminatory intent is also expected.

(4) English Language Proficiency

Demonstrate a high command of English to successfully participate in classes taught in English. Being capable of thinking logically and expressing ideas both in oral and written forms.

Expected Proficiency and Skill Level before Enrollment

- Have broad knowledge in all subjects and basic academic skills necessary for study and research at Hokkaido University. Study or research with a focus on the Japanese language and the society of modern Japan is also recommended.
- Demonstrate communication and presentation skills to collaborate and learn with diverse individuals.

Selection Policy

Students will be selected based on a comprehensive evaluation of screening of application materials and interviews.

Knowledge and comprehension are largely reviewed based on application materials including grades in secondary education or other proof of proficiency. All applicants' English language proficiency levels will be assessed by application materials and interviews including for those whose English is their native language. Thinking and analytical skills, initiative, willingness to collaborate with others with diverse backgrounds are reviewed holistically based on application materials and interviews.

To apply, you must have the following:

- (1) Access to a printer (to print out necessary documents)
- (2) A valid e-mail address (to receive confirmation e-mails)

Please note that registering online does not constitute the completion of application procedures.

For details regarding application procedures, please see pages 4-12.

1. Purpose and Objective

The Modern Japanese Studies Program is intended to foster the development of well-educated future global leaders. The degree program provides intensive Japanese language education and courses in the social sciences and humanities to help deepen students' understanding of modern Japan's society and culture. It is hoped that graduates will play active roles as intermediaries between Japan and their own cultures both within Japanese society and in the international community. Hokkaido University invites applications from students worldwide who have a high command of English, an interest in the society and culture of contemporary Japan, and very high levels of academic achievement.

2. Applicants We Are Seeking

The program is intended for students who:

- want to study social sciences or humanities (e.g. jurisprudence, political science, economics, business administration, pedagogy, philosophy, history, cultural studies, literature, psychology, sociology);
- have a strong desire to study the Japanese language and learn about Japanese culture and society;
- wish to study in a multicultural/multilingual environment; and
- aspire to become a bridge between their country and Japan, either as a researcher of Japanese culture or as a professional working in the international community.

3. Student Intake

Program	Application Period	Student Intake
Modern Japanese Studies Program	1st call for applications	Approx. 12
	2nd call for applications	Approx. 8

* If the number of successful applicants is below the student intake for the 1st call, the balance will be added to the intake for the 2nd call.

4. Dates of Admission

Modern Japanese Studies Program	Intensive Japanese Course	October 2023
	Bachelor's Degree	April 2024

- * The Modern Japanese Studies Program is a four-year Bachelor's degree program preceded by a six-month Intensive Japanese Course.
- * The six-month Intensive Japanese Course is a beginners' level course in the Japanese language to provide students with the Japanese language ability required to enter the Bachelor's degree program. Only students accepted onto the Bachelor's degree may take the Intensive Japanese Course.
- * Students who have Japanese language ability equivalent to N2 level of Japanese Language Proficiency Test or higher can apply for exemption from taking the Intensive Japanese Course.
- * Students exempted from taking the Intensive Japanese Course on the basis of the results of the entrance exam may enter the Bachelor's degree program directly.
- * Japanese language placement tests may be conducted after admission to divide the Intensive Japanese Course participants into separate classes.

5. Application Qualifications and Requirements

(1) Nationality:

Individuals who have citizenship other than Japanese are eligible to apply. Individuals who have Japanese permanent resident status are not eligible to apply.

Note: Individuals who have both foreign citizenship and Japanese citizenship must pass a preliminary qualification screening before applying. Please contact the Admission Center during the periods below and follow the instructions.

1st call for applications: October 3, 2022– October 11, 2022

However, in this case they will have been enrolled at a school for at least two consecutive years including their final school year.

Note 1: The “12 years of school education” includes coursework completed pursuant to Japan’s School Education Act.

Note 2: “Individuals who are equivalent to those who meet qualification 1 above and have been designated by the Japanese Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology” include the following:

- A. Individuals who have passed a national exam in a country other than Japan to determine whether they have the same level of academic ability as an individual who has completed 12 years of school education in that country (including an exam equivalent to the national exam), and will be at least 18 years of age by September 30, 2023.
- B. Individuals who, after completing a level of school education in a country other than Japan equivalent to a Japanese high school education (including those who have passed an exam in that country to determine whether they have academic ability equivalent to those of a high school graduate), have completed preparatory coursework for admission to a Japanese university at one of the educational facilities designated by the Japanese Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (see Table 1 on page 18).
- C. Individuals who have completed or expect to have completed a foreign education equivalent to a Japanese high school education (and deemed to be equivalent to 12 years of school education completed in that country) at an institution located in Japan and recognized under the educational system of that country by September 30, 2023 (see Table 2 on page 23).
- D. Individuals who, after completing a foreign education equivalent to a Japanese high school education (excluding those cases in C above) at an institution located in Japan and recognized under the educational system of that country, have completed preparatory coursework for admission to a Japanese university at one of the educational facilities designated by the Japanese Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (see Table 1 on page 19 and Table 3 on page 26).

E. Individuals who have completed a level of school education in a country other than Japan equivalent to a Japanese high school education (and deemed to be equivalent to 11 years or more of school education completed in that country and which fulfill the requirements designated by the Japanese Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology) at one of the educational facilities designated by the Japanese Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology, or expect to have graduated by September 30, 2023 (see Note 3 on page 4 and Table 4 on page 28).

Note 3: Those who fulfill Basic Requirement 1 or 2 (Note2-E) above must have been enrolled at a school outside Japan for at least two consecutive years including their final school year.

(3) English-Language Requirement:

Applicants must meet one of the following conditions:

1. They speak English as a native language, or have received four years or more of their secondary education (at junior or senior high school, etc.) or higher education (at university or college) in English as their primary language of instruction.

Note: Having learned English as a foreign language for four years or more does not satisfy the above requirement.

2. They have achieved the following scores in TOEFL-iBT, TOEFL-iBT Home Edition or IELTS if their native language is not English, or if they have not received four years or more of their secondary education or higher education in English:

- TOEFL-iBT (Test Date Scores ('My Best Scores' will NOT be accepted)): 79 or higher
- TOEFL-iBT Home Edition (Test Date Scores ('My Best Scores' will NOT be accepted)): 79 or higher

(3) How to Apply

1. Online Registration

a. Visit the online registration site (<https://e-apply.jp/ds/hokudai-gakubu2-eng/>).

Notes: Be sure to read all instructions and notes before completing the online registration. To use this website, you will need access to a printer to print out the necessary documents and an e-mail address that can be used to receive the application fee payment completion e-mail. Be sure you have access to a printer and an e-mail address ready before starting the application procedures.

b. Select and enter the necessary information in accordance with the on-screen instructions.

2. Select the Payment Method and Pay the Application Fee

Make your payment by following the instructions on the payment screen shown after your online registration has been submitted. The information needed for making a payment and the payment procedures differ according to the payment method, so be sure to follow the on-screen instructions.

a. Payment by credit card: Enter your credit card number, expiration date, cardholder's name, and security code.

b. Post Office/bank ATM, online banking or convenience store payment (in Japan only)

Notes:

Post Office/bank ATM: Bring the payment code, application number, and confirmation number issued after you select your preferred payment method and make your payment at a Pay-easy-compatible ATM.

Convenience store: Bring the application number, confirmation number and online payment number shown on the payment instructions, and make your payment at a convenience store. (Payments can be made at Seven-Eleven, Lawson, Family Mart, Ministop, Daily Yamazaki and Seico Mart in Japan.)

Online Banking: Follow the instructions shown on the screen.

c. ChinaPay: On the online payment screen of any bank, enter the payment information, such as your bank account number, expiration date, and password, to make your payment.

3. Mailing Your Application Materials

Print the application form (PDF) generated by the online registration site. The web URL will also be sent to you in the confirmation email sent after completion of your application fee payment. Place the application form and all other necessary documents (see pages 5–10) into an envelope. Affix the address label that was printed out along with your application form to the envelope and send it by registered mail (use EMS, DHL, FedEx and UPS etc. from overseas) so that it arrives at the university by the deadline for submitting application materials (December 2, 2022 if applying during the 1st call for applications, or March 10, 2023 if applying during the 2nd call for applications).

Note: Applications that are not received by the deadline for submitting application materials will not be processed, so be sure to leave enough time for your materials to arrive by post. Application materials delivered by hand are not accepted.

Application procedures are not complete until all of your application materials (including the test results certificate mailed directly from the institution that administered the exam) have been received and accepted as valid/authentic by the university. Please be aware that registering to apply online does not constitute the completion of application procedures.

4. Notification of Your Examination Number and Interview Date

After the online registration has been submitted, individuals whose materials have been received by the university and who have completed the application process will receive an e-mail message notifying them of their examination number and interview date. The message will be sent to the applicant's registered e-mail address.

(4) Important Application Information

1. If your application is incomplete or includes any mistakes, it will not be accepted, so be sure that everything is filled out and that there are no errors in your application.
2. If your address changes after applying online, please contact the Admission Center at the address given below.
3. All application materials including original certificates that have been received will not be returned for any reason.
4. If your application is found to have contained falsified information, your offer of a place on the Modern Japanese Studies Program will be withdrawn.
5. If you have any questions regarding your application eligibility, please contact the Admission Center before submitting your application materials.

We will post the examination numbers of successful candidates on our website (<https://www.oia.hokudai.ac.jp/mjisp/>) and will send the “Notification of Acceptance” and documents for enrollment procedures to only successful candidates via post. These will be sent to the “Delivery address of Examination results” included on the submitted Application form.

* Successful candidates for Hokkaido University's Undergraduate Courses, the Integrated Science Program (Undergraduate) or International Qualification-Based Admission, who complete the enrollment procedures, will not be accepted into the Modern Japanese Studies Program.

11. Enrollment Procedures

Period for confirming your intent to enroll on the Modern Japanese Studies Program

1st call for applications: Late February 2023 (Provisional)

2nd call for applications: Late May 2023 (Provisional)

Detailed enrollment procedure information will be provided to successful candidates at a later date.

12. Enrollment and Tuition Fees

	Application fee	Enrollment fee	Tuition fees
Intensive Japanese Course	Waived	¥43,500	¥181,200 (6 months)
Bachelor's Degree	¥5,000	¥282,000	¥535,800 (per year)

*The above enrollment and tuition fees are correct as of July 2022. If they are revised before admission or during enrollment, the new amount will apply with immediate effect from the time of revision.

*We will waive the full amount of the enrollment fee and first year of tuition (2024 academic year) for April (2024) enrollees in the Bachelor's degree; we will also waive the enrollment fee for October (2023) enrollees in the Intensive Japanese Course.

13. Scholarship Programs

- (1) Hokkaido University has a scholarship program for students participating in the Modern Japanese Studies Program (the Modern Japanese Studies Program Scholarship Program). Details of that program are outlined below.
 - a. We will waive the enrollment fee for the Intensive Japanese Course for October 2023 enrollees.
 - b. We will waive the entire enrollment and tuition fees for the 2024 academic year for April 2024 enrollees in the Bachelor's degree.
 - c. In the second year of the Bachelor's degree and thereafter, all or half of the tuition fees will be waived for selected students based on academic performance. (Waivers will not be available to all students.)
- (2) Even in cases when a student does not receive a scholarship from the Modern Japanese Studies Program Scholarship Program, that student may apply for a full, half, or quarter tuition waiver if they are facing hardship in paying their tuition for financial reasons and have demonstrated outstanding academic performance.
- (3) In addition, there are scholarships available from private organizations, and those who wish to apply for such programs may apply for scholarships after being admitted to the Modern Japanese Studies Program.

Details on how to apply for these scholarships will be distributed separately after enrollment.

14. Privacy Policy

- (1) All personal information collected by Hokkaido University will be completely protected in compliance with the Act on the Protection of Personal Information and the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) pursuant to the Hokkaido University Regulations on Personal Information Management.
- (2) Your name, address, and other personal information you provide to the university through application and individual admissions screening processes will be used solely for ① enrollee selection (application processing and the screening process), ② the announcement of exam results, ③ admission procedures, ④ surveys and research on enrollee selection methods, and ⑤ other related processes.
- (3) The personal information in section (2) above will also be used after enrollment, only for those who pass the exam, for processes related to ① academic affairs (registration, academic guidance), ② student support services (health management, scholarship applications, dorm admission selection, welfare services, etc.), ③ job search support services, ④ tuition, ⑤ use of the university library, ⑥ use of information education facilities, ⑦ confirming your safety and communication in a disaster or emergency situation, and ⑧ public relations (distributing newsletters, information on events, etc.).

- (4) Personal information contained in exam results will be used to conduct surveys and research on enrollee selection methods.
- (5) For recruiting purposes, when we receive a request for information from the Hokkaido University Frontier Foundation (Kita 8 Nishi 5, Kita-ku, Sapporo, Hokkaido; Tel: +81-(0)11-706-2017) or any of the following university-affiliated organizations listed below, the only personal information listed in section (2) will be provided for use within the scope of that organization's activities. ① Faculty Alumni Associations (Kita 8, Nishi 5, Kita-ku, Sapporo, Hokkaido; Tel: +81-(0)11-716-2111), ② Hokkaido University Elm Alumni Association (Kita 9, Nishi 6, Kita-ku, Sapporo, Hokkaido; Tel: +81-(0)11-706-2101).
- (6) The personal information set forth in (2) will be retained for five years from the next academic year of our acquirement.
- (7) The university shall use Article 6, Paragraph 1 (a) of the EU GDPR as the basis for handling personal information and obtaining consent to use it. Personal information will only be used for the purpose for which consent has been given, except when required by laws and regulations.
- (8) The consent set forth in (7) may be revoked at any time. However, this does not affect the legal handling of personal information before consent was revoked.
- (9) Individuals who provide personal information may make the following requests to the university based on the EU GDPR and related laws and regulations:
 - ① Disclosure of personal information, ② Correction of personal information, ③ Erasure of personal information, ④ Limitation of the handling of personal information, ⑤ Objection to the handling of personal information, ⑥ Transfer of personal information to other service providers
- (10) If you have provided personal information within the European Economic Area, you may file an objection to a supervisory authority in accordance with Article 51, Paragraph 1 of the EU GDPR if you are dissatisfied with the university's handling of your personal information, etc.
- (11) Some of the processes in (2)–(5) mentioned above may be outsourced by the university to a contracted service provider (hereinafter referred to as “contractor”). All or some of the personal information provided by applicants may be provided to the contractor only as needed to perform the tasks for which it has been contracted.

15. Other

(1) Housing

Students on this program usually spend their first six months in Japan living in student dorms:

For more information about the student dorms, please refer to our website (<https://www.global.hokudai.ac.jp/university-life/housing/student-dormitories/>).

When you apply for housing, you can choose the housing in which you wish to live. However, you may be assigned to housing that you do not wish. The boarding fee described on the website above is as of July 2022. Charges given are subjected to change.

(2) Health and Hygiene

Hokkaido University has a health care center to promote student health and hygiene. It offers routine health checkups as well as everyday health management and advice.

The center also offers diagnoses, health consultations, and counseling by physicians specializing in internal medicine and mental health care.

(3) Student Support Facilities

The Sapporo campus is home to such facilities as the Clark Memorial Student Center, Shokudo (cafeterias), and Welfare Facility. It offers convenient daily access to meals, books, supplies, and other amenities.

(4) International Student Support

Hokkaido University provides a wide range of services for international students such as Counselling Service, and a Student Support Desk in which experienced international students provide consultation in various languages. Also, the Modern Japanese Studies Program has various academic support systems, such as a home room and home room teacher system.

(5) Part-Time Jobs

Those who want to work part-time to help cover their study expenses and other costs must apply for permission to engage in non-specified activities from the Immigration Services Bureau before starting a job. However, applicants are strongly advised against assuming that tuition fees and living expenses incurred while studying on the Modern Japanese Studies Program can be largely or completely paid for by working part-time while on the Program.
