

Meet the Professors of MJSP

Modern Japanese Studies Program's Taster Event

Morning Session 10am-11am (JST)

Afternoon Session 5pm-6pm (JST) (The same contents as the morning session)

31 January (Wednesday) 2024 via Zoom

Meet the Professors of MJSP: The Modern Japanese Studies Program's Taster Event gives you a great opportunity to meet the professors of MJSP and learn more about the program. You will also have a chance to ask them some questions. To attend this event, please register yourself before 28 January 2024.

Professor Hironori Sasada

(PhD: University of Washington)

Political economy of Japan and East Asia, foreign policies, trade policies, party politics

Professor Emma Cook

(PhD: SOAS University of London)

Japanese youth employment, gender, health and wellbeing, food and social life

Professor Susanne Klien

(PhD: Vienna University)

Rural Japan, lifestyle migration, transnational mobility, regional revitalization

Associate Professor Michael Schiltz

(PhD: University of Leuven)

Japanese history, economic / financial history, Asian history, digital humanities

Associate Professor Shunsuke Nozawa

(PhD: University of Chicago)

Intensive Japanese Course, popular culture, linguistic anthropology

Associate Professor Takayuki Ito

(PhD: Kokugakuin University)

Modern Japanese language history, Japanese language education history

Lecturer Jonathan Bull

(PhD: Hokkaido University)

Japanese history, decolonisation, forced migration, settler colonialism, oral history

Lecturer Tadashi Iwami

(PhD: University of Otago)

International Relations, Japan's Foreign and Security Policy, New Zealand, Indo-Pacific

SCAN ME

Click here for Registration

<https://zoom.us/meeting/register/tJ0tduorTwoG9>

VMboGWHfx-khurF0-XtL1B

or Scan for Registration

Contact: Tadashi Iwami

Email: tadashi.iwami@elms.hokudai.ac.jp

HOKKAIDO UNIVERSITY'S

Modern Japanese Studies Program